

International Solidarity at the STUC Centre

333 Woodlands Road, Glasgow

Film & discussion evenings in 2015

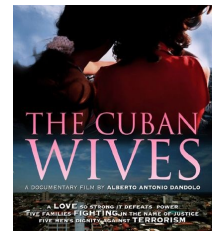

7.00 pm Thursday 19th February : 638 Ways to kill Castro

Cuban leader Fidel Castro has survived several hundred attempts on his life during his lengthy term in office with methods ranging from exploding cigars to femme fatales - all are revealed here.

7.00 pm Thursday 16th April : The Cuban Wives

Documentary film by Alberto Antonio Dandolo. The Cuban Wives reveals the compelling and tragic story of "the Cuban Five". Five intelligence agents who have been arrested in the United States since 1998.

Speaker: Frieda Park reporting on International Commission on Miami Five.

7.00 pm Thursday June 18th June: Viva Cuba

The first Cuban film to be awarded the 'Grand Prix Écrans Juniors' for children's cinema at the 2005 Cannes Film Festival. Cremata tackles localized Cuban problems from the literal point of view of the country's children. He lowers the camera to the eye level of the film's protagonists, Malú (Malú Tarrau Broche) and Jorgito (Jorgito Miló Ávila).

7.00 pm Thursday 20th August : Will the Real Terrorist Please Stand Up

Tells the story of the case of The Cuban Five, intelligence agents sent to penetrate Cuban exile terrorist groups in Miami and now serving long prison sentences, the film highlights decades of assassinations and sabotage at first backed by Washington, then ignored by the very government that launched a "war against terrorism".

7.00 pm Thursday 15th October: Guantanamera

Guantanamera is a 1995 comedy film from Cuba, directed by Tomás Gutiérrez Alea and Juan Carlos Tabío, featuring an ensemble cast. Screenplay by Eliseo Alberto and others. The film was produced by Camilo Vives

